Data Protection Act 1998

The Electoral Registration Officer of Oadby and Wigston Borough Council will use this information for electoral purposes and will only disclose the information in accordance with the Representation of the People Act 2000 and subsequent amendment regulations. The information may be subject to audit, both internal & external. You have the right to ask for a copy of the information we hold on you, which is subject to the Data Protection Act 1998 (for which we may make a small charge) and to correct any inaccuracies.

The two versions of the register

There are two versions of the electoral register – the ‘full register’ and the ‘edited register’.

The edited register leaves out the names and addresses of people who have asked for them to be excluded from that version of the register. The edited register can be bought by anyone who asks for a copy and they may use it for any purpose.

The full register lists everyone who is entitled to vote. You can check it at the Council offices or at some local libraries. Only certain people and organisations can have copies of the full register, and they can only use it for specified purposes. These include electoral purposes, the prevention and detection of crime and checking your identity when you have applied for credit.

The law says who can have a copy of the full register and what they can use it for. The full list of such persons and purposes is given in the Representation of the People (England and Wales) (Amendment) Regulations 2002. It is a criminal offence for them to pass it on to anyone else or to use it for any other purpose.

Please say in your application if you wish your name and address to be excluded from the edited register.

Voting by post – Any elector can choose to vote by post, instead of in person at a polling station. Please tick the box if you would like an application form.

Voting by proxy – Any elector can choose to vote by proxy (someone else voting for you), instead of in person at a polling station. Please tick the box if you would like an application form.
